Preparing to Worship

Psalm 46:1-3

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear though the earth give way, though the mountains be moved into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble at its swelling. Selah

“Psalm 46 vividly contrasts the chaotic instability of the world's governments with God's eternal stability and invincible power. Even though the future may involve overwhelming calamities, those who take refuge in the Lord can face it with fearlessness, certain that he will eventually end every war and destroy every weapon. While the epic statement "Be still, and know that I am God," is often spoken to anxious believers, here God speaks it to the chaotic world, advising rebels to repent and acknowledge his sovereignty. When Jesus calmed the raging sea with the words "Peace! Be still!" he proved himself to be the Sovereign Lord over creation who is "very present" with his storm-tossed disciples and who will end this world's chaos when he returns (see Mark 4:37–41; Rev. 19). May Christians continually sing Psalm 46: "The Lord of hosts is with us!" – Joe Tyrpak

Upcoming EBC Events

Sun Jan 25 Food Fellowship, Annual Members Meeting, HS youth group activity

If the Lord wills, we will live and do this or that

We will be observing the Lord's Supper in our evening meeting.

Please uphold our missionaries Charlie & JoAnn Smith in prayer this week.

Pray the US Supreme Court rules in favor of freedom of religion and free speech in the Chiles case.

The WY Supreme Court ruled our state's protection for the unborn "unconstitutional." The attorney general has promised to file a motion for a rehearing. This is a bold move and almost unheard of. You can help by praying for Keith Kautz, the attorney general. As he works on the petition over the weekend, please pray that God would grant courage, wisdom, and insight to find the words that God would have him write. You can also give thanks to God that He has given WY a pious and faithful attorney general for our time.

Giving

Monthly need: $12,270
